ENTRY TERMS AND CONDITIONS

By entering the Women In Defence Awards, submitting entrants agree to the following rules and conditions of entry. The Awards are open to entries from Australian-based individuals only. The relevant eligibility period is between 1 January 2018 and 31 December 2018. Ensure all creative material, reference to work, performance and results are within this time frame. More than one entry may be submitted by an individual in any given category. Please make sure all entry details are entered accurately, including grammar. Details collected through the entry phase will be used in the Awards presentation and in print if selected as a finalist. Entries must not exceed 500 words. Entries that exceed the word count will not be accepted. Entries received after 4pm, Wednesday 10th April 2019 will not be eligible for consideration. All entries are treated as confidential. Judges reserve the right to move an entry to another category if deemed more suitable. The decision of the judges will be final and no correspondence will be entered into. Scores and comments will not be disclosed. The entrant grants ADM permission to show the entries at the Awards Presentation and in the magazine in print and online at such times as deemed appropriate. Finalists and winners will be covered in the ADM winners supplement using information from the entry. If there is specific information in your entry that is commercially sensitive and should not be published please make this clear at the time you submit your entry. The entrant agrees that ADM and Two de Force will not accept responsibility for errors or omissions reproduced in the Presentation or the winners supplement or for work lost or damaged under any circumstances. Finalists will be notified in mid May 2019.
